

ARTICLE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Article Presentation Format

Article Length. Should comply with the following parameters: (i) texts should contain from 4,000 to 9,000 words, including the words in graphs, tables, and annexes (if any); (ii) abstracts should consist of 150 to 180 words, and (iii) there should be 4 to 6 key words.

Abstract. Should be composed in present tense using the impersonal form. Must present the question that the article answers, the theoretical context or perspective used, the methodology employed, the main conclusions, and future lines of research.

Footnotes. Should only be used to clarify or provide additional information. Bibliographical references should be included in the body of the text as follows.

Bibliographical References. Should be in the text, in parenthesis: (Last name, year). Example: (Rodríguez, 2005). On quote: (Last name, year, page; for example: Rodríguez, 2005, p. 23).

Bibliography. Cuadernos de Administración uses ISO standards supported by APA standards. Should be included at the end of the article, in alphabetical order, using the following format:

BOOKS. Last Name, Name (year). Title. City: Publishing Company.

Senge, P. (1992). The Fifth Discipline. Buenos Aires: Granica.

ESSAYS IN COLLECTIONS. Last Name, Name (year). Essay Title. In: Full Name (Eds.)/ (Comps.), Book Title (range of pages cited). City: Publishing Company.

González, F. (1998). Political Violence and Difficulties in Building a Public Conscience in Colombia: An In-depth Look. In F. Arocha and M. Jimeno I (Eds.), Violence: Growing Inclusion (pp. 309-330). Bogotá: School of Human Sciences - Universidad Nacional.

ARTICLES IN JOURNALS. Last Name, First Name (year). Article Title. Journal Na- me, volume (number), range of pages cited.

Gartner, W. B. (1985). A conceptual framework for describing the phenomenon of new venture creation. The Academy of Management Review, 10 (4), 1290-1315.

LECTURES AND COMMUNIQUÉS DURING CONGRESSES

Last Name, First Name (year). Lecture or Communiqué Title. In First Name Last Name (Ed.), Title of the Event (range of pages cited). City: Publishing Company.

Rocha, A. (1999). Business Innovation: A New Development Focus. In A. Balbuena (Ed.), Memoirs of the IV Financial integration Symposium (pp. 50-75). Bogotá: Panamericana..

CONFERENCES. Last Name, First Name (year, month).

Title. Document presented during ... City, Country.

Garzón, J. C. (2000, March). Beyond Economic Decisions. Document presented during the II Economic Analysis Meet, Havana, Cuba.

PUBLISHED AND UNPUBLISHED REPORTS

Published. Last Name, Name (year). Title. City: Entity in Charge, Number of Pages.

Iragori, F. and Rodríguez, M. (2004). Internal Auditing Reports. Seville: National Registration Office, 56 p.

Unpublished. Last Name, First Name (year). Title. Unpublished Manuscript, Number of Pages.

Iragori, F. and Rodríguez, M. (2004). Internal Auditing Reports. Unpublished Manuscript, 80 p.

INTERNET. Last Name, First Name (year). Title. Downloaded on day, month, year, from web site.

National Planning Department (2003). 1996-2002 Violence Figures. Downloaded on 24 July 2005, from http://www.dnp.gov.co/paginas_detalle.aspx?idp=562.

Semana.com (2004, 15 February). Colombians Today. Downloaded from <http://www.semana.com/opencms/opencms/Semana/articuloImpresion.html?id=76491>.

Banking Analysis Procedure (no date). Downloaded on 8 August 2000, from <http://www.cc.ilt.columbia.edu/publications/papers/newwinel.htm>.

González, F. and Posada C.E. (2001, November). Criminality, Violence and Public Expense in Defense, Justice, and Security in Colombia. Revista de Economía Institucional, 3 (4). Downloaded on 22 October 2005, from <http://ideas.repec.org/s/rei/ecoins/html>.

2. Information on the Author(s) and on the Origin of the Article

An additional file should be submitted with the following information: (i) Author's/Authors' full name (for several authors, in the order in which they wish to appear); (ii) updated résumé also including address, city, telephone number and e-mail address, identification number, and date of birth; (iii) list of four potential peer evaluators, their e-mail addresses, and a brief résumé.

Academic Information. Author's/Authors' undergraduate and graduate degrees, universities that conferred them, city and country of the institution, and dates on which the degrees were obtained (degrees in the original language).

Institutional Information. Name of the institution where the author/authors currently works/work, city and country of the institution of which the author(s) is/are members and position that the author/the authors hold, research group or center to which he/she/they belongs/belong.

Nature of the Article. Specify if the article is the result of research, a graduation thesis, an essay or critique. If it is the result of research, indicate the project title, the financing source, the date of completion, and the registration code (if any).

Acknowledgements. Indicate any clarification regarding the work (acknowledgements, collaborators, etc...) with an asterisk after the title and insert it in a footnote.

3. General Conditions

Article Delivery. The author(s) must send his/her/their article by e-mail to administracion@javeriana.edu.co or to fmalaver@javeriana.edu.co, dividing it into two files:

- One, a Word file, containing the text with its graphs, tables, and annexes (if any); an abstract in two versions, one in Spanish and the other in English; and a list of the key words in the article.
- The other will contain the tables (in Word or in Excel) and the graphs or diagrams (in Excel, Word, Power Point, JPEG or TIFF), in scales of gray.

Reception of the articles will be confirmed by the journal's Administration in maximum eight business days. Under no circumstances will original texts be returned.

The articles received are remitted to the Editorial Committee that will decide which to send to the respective peer evaluators and, afterwards, based on the evaluation results, it will make the decision on which articles to publish.

Review Process. Cuadernos de Administración is an arbitrated journal. All articles are subject to anonymous evaluation, the results of which will be communicated to author(s), for them to reflect the observations and recommendations.

Priority will be given to articles that: (i) are the product of theoretical reflection; (ii) are the result of empirical research with solid theoretical guiding references; (iii) are critical reviews of the current status of the topic at hand; and (iv) are conceptually and methodologically rigorous.

The articles must treat economic and administrative science topics or other disciplines that represent relevant contributions to them.

Intellectual Property. Cuadernos de Administración understands that, when the author/authors remits/remits an article, such author(s) is (are) certifying and accepting that: (i) the article has not been previously published or accepted for publication in another journal; (ii) the publication of a prior version has not been reported as a working paper (or “gray literature”) or on a web site, and that if the article is accepted for publication in Cuadernos de Administración, the author(s) will remove it from such web site(s) and will only leave the title, the abstract, the key words, and the hyperlink to the Journal.

Upon remitting the articles for evaluation, the author/authors further accepts/accept that he/she/they is/are transferring the copyrights to the journal Cuadernos de Administración, for publication in print or electronically.